

İnsan Hakları Derneği (IHD), the oldest and biggest human rights organisation in Turkey, member of EuroMed Rights, is pleased to invite you to the press conference

Turkey: Appalling Human Rights Records

Since the failed coup and the imposition of state of emergency, the environment for human rights in Turkey is seriously deteriorating. Escalation of violence in the southeast, severe crackdown on media and political opponents of the ruling Justice and Development Party (AKP), arrest of human rights activists, peaceful demonstrators, journalists, academics and intellectuals...

IHD Co-Presidents Mr. Ozturk Turkdogan and Ms. Eren Keskin invite you to share recent human rights figures in Turkey, discuss general human rights situation as well as the upcoming constitutional referendum.

Date: 19 February 2017

Time: 10.00-12.00

Venue: Cezayir Cafe (Firuzaga, Hayriye Cad. No. 12, 34425, Beyoglu, Istanbul)

English-Turkish interpretation will be provided.
